GELLERUP 26th – 30th OF JULY 2017

Theatre, debate, dance, contemporary circus, music, food

What is

EUTOPIA INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL?

EUTOPIA INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL is a multicultural festival about meeting. Meeting art, meeting each other, meeting other cultures, meeting the known, meeting the unknown and most importantly, meeting oneself through eye-opening experiences.

And what better place to meet than Gellerup, where 80 different nationalities live side by side.

For five days Gellerup will provide the setting for a festival site with tents, stages and small oases, where everyone can experience, sense and meet. The festival offers no less than 10 national premieres, musical works and artists from 23 countries.

During the day there will be a chance to come "backstage", when a number of well-known artists and debaters meet to discuss art and life in our new multicultural world. There will be outdoor performances in tents, at EUTOPIA Stage and in private homes in Gellerup. In the evening there will be premieres of large, international productions, and when night falls, there will be time for contemplation, reflection and delight.

Artistic Director of EUTOPIA 2017

BRIGITTE CHRISTENSEN

"EUTOPIA is Greek for a beautiful, lovely place"

I fell in love with theatre at a rather young age, after watching a series of life-changing shows. I became hooked on the idea of sharing this experience with everybody. I started thinking about that process. What was it theatre had done for me that I had only ever experienced a few times before?

The live meeting. People gathered in one space. In a continuous exchange of energy, feelings - collective existence - gathered around the same impressions, but experiencing individually, differently, personally.

Not the answer to life's big questions, merely questions. Thought-provoking physical and spiritual questions. Reflection and the creation of images. Letting go, existing beyond time and space, another dimension. Mind-expanding. Emotion-expanding. Enriching on basic, human premises. Everything I have ever done, in big cities like Rome to small villages in France, has been based on the live meeting.

Such is the essence of our festival. To create a place in just five days, where reflection, being together and powerful artistic experiences form the basis of human meetings and exchanges on the premises of body and soul, on the premises of art. We meet across ethnic, social and age-related divides. A beautiful, lovely place.
